FOREWORD

Shadle Park High School, 1962: This is your school year in review. As you turn back to memories of work and fun at Shadle, can you deny that outstanding among these experiences will be the cherished moments when you, as a student, upheld your school's pride and honor. Could you ever forget . . .

how you battled your way through the crowded halls, how you bombed up the stairs late to class,
how you cooled that final Chemistry test, how you cheered our team on until you gasped for breath, how you supported our fellas, win, lose, or draw.

You will never forget . . .

Our treasured moments and memories of Shadle will not die, but will live on forever. For as we step out into the wide world for ourselves, we will not forget the school where we will leave a part of our hearts. Yes, we will always belong at Shadle.

And to those who are to follow — we offer you both a challenge and a responsibility, and promise you loads of wonderful memories if you will respect and love Shadle as we do.

Don't forget about the year ahead of you. You'll have a lot of fun in college. Love, Sid in memoriam

"Each that we lose takes part of us."

MABEL MARIE SWANSON
(Mrs. George C. Swanson)

No one ever faced death with more courage than did Mrs. Mabel Swanson, Shadle Park's Senior Secretary.

Mrs. Swanson first became a part of our principal's staff when she was in high school. Few have come to regard their vocations with more dedication than she, and fewer still have kept so constant and so sweet a temper. Her concern for the high school students whose affairs she handled, and her respect for the integrity demanded of her position, we will not soon forget.

To you, Highlanders, who make up
... a noisy classroom
... a crowded, stampeding hall
... an appreciative audience
... an enthusiastic rooting section.

To you, who have given Shadle a life and a heart, making it a place in which many things have and will be accomplished—We dedicate the 1962 Sporrán, hoping that it will recall to your minds and hearts the memories which we lads and lassies will always share.

administration

We appreciate the time Mr. Finnegan dedicates to our problems and activities as Dean of Boys and senior advisor.

Miss Cleveland, Girls' Dean and advisor to the juniors, has plenty to keep her busy, and is always willing to help when needed.

Not only sophomores profit from the expert advice of Mr. Cobb, sophomore advisor, but also upperclassmen and teachers.

Shadle can boast the best and most capable Principal of all, Mr. Taylor.

Our efficiently-run high school is proof of this fact.

Assistant Principal Mr. Anker has contributed much to our scholastic success.

There is more than one way to meet Mr. Bennett, our Vice Principal and loyal supporter.

cooks and custodians

WE PRESENT SHADLE'S MORALE BUILDERS—THE COOKS

Beverly Alfano, Eileen Sarber, Esther Davis, Ellen Estes, Clara Ninemire, Thelma Hedin, Donna Dotson, Willena Martin, Ellen Mohny, Beatrice Masters.

The custodians make up the all important behind-the-scene-team of Shadle.

Leonard Gamache, Ralph Sterritt, Sam Adsley, Syl Hutchins, Alvin Nelson, Frank Adams, Betty Schirk, R. E. Jackson.

Teachers, like all of us, need something to keep them going. We feel that lunch is the period they look forward to, also, especially on a spirited game day.

shadle's faculty in action

First thing in the morning, each teacher reports to his mailbox to find what's on his day's agenda.

Here's a change. At open house the faculty puts in overtime explaining to our parents just exactly what is expected from students.

SENIORS

We Seniors have become a part of this school, just as Shadle has become a part of us. Never again will we see: teachers wearing Henderson Green, winding stairways crowded with students, lines for lunch the length of the cafeteria, or the apple machines always out of order. All this was a part of Shadle — something to remember.

Last of the originals—yes, we of the class of '62 were among the first to enter the halls of Shadle. We look back on the five years of work and fun, reminiscing . . .

Lilac Princess 1962

to the class of '62

Congratulations on your successful completion of five years of hard work. You may well feel proud of the accomplishments of your class. You are to be commended for your high rank in citizenship. Many of your members have already demonstrated outstanding leadership; others have rated high scholastically. Next fall many of you no doubt will enter institutions of higher learning, while others engage in commercial or industrial activity. Whatever your endeavor, I am certain that you will be a credit to Shadle Park High School. May God always bless your life with peace, and may your future be one of happiness.

so will cover the worst

Now how does this study hall scene of sophomores compare with the juniors? It gives the sophs something to look forward to next year.

Hidden behind the scenes of all Shadle activities is our stage crew, Joe Agostino, Richard White, Dave Walters, Roger Repp, John Beam, and Richard Walters.

stage crew aids sophomores, juniors and seniors

Enjoying a bird's eye view while working the spotlights are John Beam and Dave Walters.

Ron Carter, stage manager, is at the controls.

The spotlight is on Richard White and Roger Repp.

ACTIVITIES

Bob,

Well, I know I'm a pest but it was all in fun and I hope these unknown hard feelings between us. I'm sure there are none on my side.

Good luck in the future and stay away from the house and women this summer.

David (crow)

One of the Hi-Lites of Highlander Week was the Teacher's Tea. Students served the teachers coffee and cookies, furnished by the home-rooms. Serving Mr. Ross and Mrs. Magnuson are Marti Mueller, Nancy Heimsjo, Vickie Ashley, Donna Rhodes, and Cheri Cote.

highlander week

Climaxing Highlander Week activities was the annual Highland Fling, a mixer for all lads and lassies.

Ivor McCoy is so loaded with purses and books on Hi-Lassie Day, that he is helpless when Patty Burns and Marsha Williams try to strangle him with a pair of stretch tights.

Barb Aitchison stacks up "brownie" points with Mr. Harris as she presents him with an apple on behalf of the A. S. B. Each teacher was given a shiny red apple on Hi-Teacher Day.

Hi-Lassie day was just too much for Joe Gardner, whom we find dejectedly seated on the floor with no hope of help.

Dave Morton was one of many boys who took advantage of Hi-Lassie Day. It took these four girls, Bonnie Brecken, Jerry Cottrell, Patty Cox, and Colleen Cady to carry him through the halls.

girls' league sadie hawkins dance

The fourth annual Girls' League Sadie Hawkins Dance was held on November 3, 1961. Couples who wished to become "hitched" (Patty Greenslitt and Steve Taylor) went to see Marryin' Sam, one of whom was Mr. Paul Henley. Prizes were presented to the citizens of Dogpatch with the most authentic costumes. The winning couple was Linda Parker and Gary Hurley who came as schmoos. Among the many stunning costumes at the dance were Rich Wharf, Carla Greene, Joan Greenwood, Bob Stephan, Bonnie Seipp, and Terry Anderson.

sweetheart swing

The Sweetheart Swing was an informal date dance held in the cafeteria after a basketball game with West Valley.

Larry Groshoff presents the Clansmen candidate, Kathe Palmer, with a bouquet, making her Sweetheart of the "Sweetheart Swing".

Bruce Lee, Nancy Perry, Nancy Graham, Ethan Crawford, Myrl Chapman, Darleen Campbell, Steve Katon and Lynn Drake were just a few of the couples who enjoyed the dance.

sporrán con

Mommie (Judy) Mead is telling little Beauford Clark a bedtime story about the Shadle Park Sporrán for 1962.

The "Cotton Queen and King," Guyla Hooper and Dave Morton, are attired in new spring clothes.

Shadle's gorgeous cheerleaders, Bob Stephan and Dan Vanderpool, with the help of Clanswomen, try out a new cheer.

convocations during year vary

Paula is crowned Queen of the annual Shrine football game by visiting Shriners at the Shadle pep con.

The large crowd found at every pep con is on hand again to stand and yell as the cheerleaders help promote spirit and support for the team.

The grandchildren, Mike Gormley and Dianna Black, who are gathered around the Christmas tree, are listening to one of Grandpa's (Mike Hoover) famous yarns during the Christmas convocation.

shadle life

Wait until he comes around the corner, then we'll get him.

"... and lining up at the starting gate is ..."

"Drop those and I'll smash ya'."

Anyone for Blue Cross?

... and away we go!

A dog's eye view of Shadle Park.

Back-combing isn't easy.

Shadle's hurtin'
for women.

These studious people are Shadle's National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists. They earned this honor by receiving high grades on the National Merit test. They now have chances of winning top scholarships.

a.s.b. acknowledgements

Marion Bowker receives a Daughters of the Revolution pin for her outstanding essay entitled "A Republic, If You Can Keep It."

Mr. Chrisman awards Doug Jones a scholarship for study in the field of research science. The award was given Doug as the most outstanding senior in the area of science.

The outstanding art work for the 1962 Sporrán was contributed by Sharon Lean and Bruce Lee, seated, Dan Henderson, John Meier, Monte Hallgarth, Mike Dalgarn, and Jim Atwood.

girls' state

Leaving for Girls' State are Nancy Spangenberg and Ruthe Green. While attending the session, Ruthe was State Attorney General and Nancy served in the Senate.

Girls' and Boys' State is a most rewarding experience. Two girls and two boys from Shadle were chosen to attend mock legislature sessions held in Ellensburg and Tacoma respectively. City, county and state governments were stressed, with elections and typical legislative procedures practiced. Many wonderful friendships began there.

Packing up and heading to Boys' State are Dan Vanderpool and Don Russell. While at State, Dan was a representative and Don served as Game Commissioner.

Jack McBride powers through the line for extra yards in an unsuccessful attempt to turn a 46 to 0 loss into a win.

Jack McBride is snagging in a pass for yardage against Gonzaga in the first tilt with the Bullpups.

SUMMARY

The varsity football team showed great determination and spirit through the year, even though the season was not too impressive.

Coach Peterson said, "This is the best squad that I have ever coached. I've had boys with better ability, but never with as much desire and love for the game. I'm really proud of the way they kept their hopes high, even though it wasn't too noticeable on the win-loss column."

In our 0 to 0 tie with North Central, Bob Stephan runs around right end for yardage gained.

The hard-working managers for the Highlanders squad are Jack Fountaine, Dan Wolfley, and Larry Wogman.

For every hard-fought victory, the Highlanders suffered a heart-breaking defeat. All hopes of making state three years in a row waned as the season drew to a close. Their spirit and determination was still the strongest in the city, but efforts were not successful in accomplishing the long-sought goal . . . The State Tournament.

Steve Heaps tips in another two points during a close non-league loss to the Moses Lake Chiefs, 50 to 52.

WE CAN'T STAND STILL!

The Washington Water Power Company had been identified with dependable utility service for most of the past three-quarters of a century.

It is the reputation of a community builder, however, that we value most. Each year we have found new trails to cut, new horizons to cross, new ways to serve.

WWP's pledge to today's graduates, as well as to its other fellow citizens, is to continue, undiminished, this tradition of helping build your community.

SPRING '62

spring

The snows of high school have melted, and the spring of life is upon you, Seniors! You pass through portals of responsibility in these brief weeks.

The calmness of unconcern vanishes, and the planting of your seeds of maturity is taking place now, Juniors! Your future can be molded in this time rapidly advancing.

The summer of newness has faded, and the fall of routine has set in, Sophomores! Beware the frozen plains of complacency. View the approaching spring of life.

SENIOR BREAKFAST

spring brings girls' league activities

Girl's League Courtesy Committee members, Shadle's official hostesses, greet newcomers to Shadle as they arrive: FIRST ROW: LoRita Solseng, Marion Bowker, Julie Stokke, Sally Stokke, Marsha Williams, Karen Trent, Emily Paddock, Ginny Young, Sandy Johnson, Linda Juul, Diane Jones, Gail Williams, Carolyn Glidden. SECOND ROW: Barbie Irby, Joan Greenwood, Judy Backman, Mary Lee Gillette, Faye Griswold, Jennifer Wengeler, Nancy Spangenburg, Carol Bolma, Miss Helen Cleveland, advisor, Nancy Graham, Nancy Perry, Sylvia Meuler, Jo Whitely, Sandy Kerr, Kaye Nelson, Gayle LaVigne, and Marti Mueller, chairman.

Girls' League Cotton Day royalty included sophomore candidates, Chrystal Thompson and Jeff Watts; senior Queen and King, Jo Whitely and Charlie Cobb; junior candidates, Dan Phillips and Julie Tye.

Carnival hombres are being guarded by these "responsible" Dileas Chalin cow-girls who will deposit the fines in their treasury.

a. s. b.

No prize that time.

General chairman of the carnival, Lynn Drake, has quite a bit of loot.

That one!

carnival

Hey gang, let's try Reno.

Mr. Robinette seems to think the situation in jail is hopeless while Ron Alderson holds his wound, inflicted by the Dileas law-women.

Ivor McCoy and Karen Trent danced in the program of the annual Mother-Daughter Tea.

Another part of the program was a style show in which Margaret Butts, Erin Armstrong, and Gay Weeks, (seated) Janice Hess, Kathy Bennet, Donna Wilmington, Joan Campbell, Sherry Chesrown, Judy Campbell, Patricia Johnson, Jan Jacobs, and Candy Miller modeled the dresses that they made themselves.

mother-daughter reception

Kathy Nichterline, Mrs. Boisen, and Shirley Wageman are shown serving Peggy Rolsness and her mother.

lilac torchlight parade

Here are the Hi-Lassies ready to begin their long march displaying their new banner for the first time. It is a gift from the Senior Hi-Lassies.

The same Lassies after the drag. Do your feet hurt, girls?

Our princess, Carolyn, looks as if she is enjoying her ride as is Mary Jean Rancy from Holy Names.

junior prom

On the eve of the Junior Prom Diane is entering a florist shop.

Well, look who beat her to it. "Fancy meeting you here."

Setting the scene for "Shangrila" is the bridge from reality into dreams.

It must not be too late in the evening, for most of the girls still have their shoes on.

"Aha!" The witch caught Rapunzel and her millionaire makin' whoopee in the last annual presentation of Salmagundy.

The seniors heartily encouraged everyone to "Pucker Up."

last annual salmagundy

Pan and Tinkerbell express their undying devotion for one another at the conclusion of Peter Pan.

Four Freshmen? No, four seniors who highlighted the Senior Con with "Michael" and "Banua."

senior activities

Senior Sports Day gave the "last of the originals" a chance to show off their knees in grubbies. General "goofoffishness" reigned.

Senior Dress Up Day followed with the upper-classmen finally appearing as people about to step out into the world.

"if dreams come true"

As seniors danced in the heavenly atmosphere, the dreams of many came true on the night of the Senior Prom. The realities of the Prom will in time fade into one of the most cherished memories of high school life.

The Prom atmosphere may have been "heavenly", but sharp contrast was provided by three "junior devils" who became popular by serving refreshments.

The honored table at the Senior Breakfast included Mr. Finnegan, Miss Cleveland, Mr. Eacker, Rev. Homer A. Swartz, and Mike Stevens, class president.

senior breakfast

These seniors and Mr. Via are obviously enjoying Mr. Heslins' speech, which was humorous as well as inspirational.

The empty plates and full stomachs characterized the ending of five years at Shadle and the start of a whole new and exciting life for each member of the Class of 1962.

Darleen Campbell was one of the first seniors to receive her diploma from George Nethercut, chairman of the Spokane School Board.

Waiting two and one half hours to receive his diploma, was Glenn Zumwalt, the last Senior to graduate.

Mike Stevens is shown welcoming the friends and relatives of the Class of 1962 to the third Commencement of Shadle Park High School.

baseball action

Coach Don Cobb felt the success of the team was due to the players' combined efforts.

Ed Fiskland shows the form that made him one of the top hitters. The catcher is Terry Kolb.

Warming up before the start of a league game, is Gary Luce.

In a practice session on the Shadle field, Terry Marienau is caught in the "hot box" by Rich Wichterman and Sid Johnson. Chuck Halstead backs up the play.

Dick Sherrill flies high as he pushes for a winning jump.

On his way to another pole vault win, Rick Liefer slips over the bar.
